

Utterly amazed, they asked: "Are not all these men who are speaking Galileans? Then how is it that each of us hears them in his own native language?"

Peter said to them, "Repent and be baptized every one of you in the name of Jesus Christ for the forgiveness of your sins and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit. For the promise is for you and for your children and for all who are far off, everyone the Lord our God calls to Himself."

And with many other words he bore witness and continued to exhort them, saying, "Save yourselves from this crooked generation."

So those who received His word were baptized, and there were added that day about three thousand souls.

Pentecost

They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. Acts 2:3

Pentecost
Acts 2:1-8, 38-41

When the day of Pentecost came, they were all together in one place.

Suddenly a sound like the blowing of a violent wind came from heaven and filled the whole house where they were sitting.

They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them. All of them were filled with the Holy Spirit and began to speak in other tongues as the Spirit enabled them.

Now there were staying in Jerusalem God-fearing Jews from every nation under heaven. When they heard this sound, a crowd came together in bewilderment, because each one heard them speaking in his own language.

They saw what seemed to be tongues of fire that separated and came to rest on each of them.
